Beginning with Degas, underpainting has become an intrinsic part of the pastel painting process. This workshop will introduce some new creative techniques to those who are unfamiliar and help to hone the skills of those already seasoned underpainting artists.

Emphasis will also be placed on how to take authority and orchestrate the visual elements of design to communicate artistic intent. Analogies are the conductor of the orchestra and director of a film. One has a score, the other a script, but both control the players to produce the final performance.

2-Day-Workshop $325.00 (members)
Non-Members $375.00
ENROLLMENT LIMITED TO 18 STUDENTS.
